

International Studies

FACULTY OF ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT
SUA IN NITRA
FROM ACADEMIC YEAR 2013/2014
MASTER STUDY PROGRAM:
BUSINESS ECONOMICS - INTERNATIONAL V4 STUDIES

The Master's Study Programme Business Economics – International V4 Studies is an internationally oriented programme providing a unique global vision with expert insights into management best practices both in developed and emerging markets of V4 countries.

Powerful partnership of the most prestigious business and agricultural universities at V4 countries – Slovak University of Agriculture in Nitra, Mendel University in Brno, Krakow University of Economics, Karoly Robert College, Wroclaw University of Economics, University of South Bohemia and University of Agriculture in Krakow – is an assumption of highest quality study programme.

Why to study Business Economics - International V4 Studies at FEM SUA in Nitra

- programme taught in English
- participation in Erasmus Intensive Programme
- international team of lecturers from partner universities
- communication at a professional level of English

- international students community
- historical and student city Nitra
- complex student facilities - accommodation, canteen, free time activities

For whom is study programme addressed

- graduates of economic and socio-economic bachelor study programmes
- students with upper intermediate level of English
- students interested in V4 studies

When and where?

The Master's study programme: Business Economics - International V4 Studies is a two years programme taught entirely in English at Faculty of Economics and Management, Slovak University of Agriculture in Nitra.

Starting date: September 2013

Deadline for applications: 20 July 2013

- Application Form (download: <https://prihlaskavs.sk/en/>)
- Letter of interest must be included

Contact person:

Ing. Eva Cvengrošová, PhD.

e-mail: cvengrosova.eva@uniag.sk

Phone number: +421/376415898